

2018 Puerto Rico Youth Fellowships

The letter of intent (LOI) must be no more than two pages (single-spaced). Applicants should be sure to provide answers to each of the questions below. The LOI can be submitted instead as a video or sound recording (maximum 4 minutes).

Supplemental materials cannot be submitted via the online application system, but applicants are welcome to include links to relevant information in their letter or resume/bio that may help us better understand the proposed project or the person who will be taking it on.

1. What is the title of your project?
2. What are the biggest challenges that youth are facing on the island right now? Which of these challenges you would like to solve with your project?
3. Why are you the right person to take on this work? Tell us about your story.
4. Who is your constituency? Be as specific as possible about whom you hope to work with to solve the challenge above.
5. How is your constituency experiencing the challenge on which your project is based?
6. What would the community look like if the challenge was solved? What is the change you want to see?
7. Why is your project needed and important?
