

Program on Reproductive Health and Rights Grants

Advocacy and Litigation

Advocacy and Litigation Grants Awarded, 1997-2004

Links to other organization websites are provided where available.

American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, Inc.

New York, NY

$850,000 for the Reproductive Freedom Project, a program of litigation, education, and advocacy advancing reproductive rights (1997-2004).

Boston Women's Health Book Collective, Inc.

Somerville, MA

$120,000 to implement the Promotoras de Salud Training Program in multiple sites in the United States, using the curriculum developed from the OSI-funded Spanish translation of Our Bodies, Ourselves (2001-2003).

California Women's Law Center

Los Angeles, CA

$150,000 for the ARCH (Advocates for Reproductive Choice in Healthcare) Project, a community education, organizing, and advocacy effort designed to ensure that comprehensive reproductive health services are available in California communities served by religiously affiliated healthcare facilities (1998-2000).

Center for Reproductive Rights \(formerly the Center for Reproductive Law and Policy\)

New York, NY

$1,750,000 for a four-tiered strategy to defend against "partial birth" abortion legislation and other threats to reproductive rights. The center engages in litigation; education of the legal and activist community; advocacy for universal access to contraception through health insurance; and advocacy for legal access to emergency contraception and mifepristone, the early option pill (1997-2004).

Columbia University School of Public Health

New York, NY

$200,000 to support an effort to organize a broad grassroots coalition to advocate for women's health in Texas (2000-2001).

Community Healthcare Network

New York, NY

$50,000 for a survey on the life circumstances of uninsured immigrants seeking reproductive healthcare in New York City (1999-2000).

Education Fund of Family Planning Advocates of NY State

Albany, NY

$62,500 to support the "No Strings Attached: Public Funding of Religious Hospitals" project (2001-2003).

Feminist Majority Foundation

Los Angeles, CA

$770,000 for general support. The Feminist Majority Foundation's major programs in the area of reproductive health and rights include the National Clinic Access Project, the Campaign for Women's Health and Mifepristone, and the Choices Campus Leadership Program (1997-2004).

Funders Network on Population, Reproductive Health and Rights \(formerly the Affinity Group on Population, Reproductive Health and Rights\)

Takoma Park, MD

$100,000 for general support (1998-2000; 2002-2004).

Georgia Campaign for Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention \(G-CAPP\)

Atlanta, GA

$200,000 for support of G-CAPP's campaign to ensure that Georgia's adolescents have the opportunities, skills, and support services needed to avoid early pregnancies, and to develop replicable models for other states and local communities (1998-2000).

Hesperian Foundation

Berkeley, CA

$50,000 to support development and broad distribution of grassroots education materials promoting women's reproductive health, especially among immigrant communities in the U.S. (2001-2002).

Institute for Women's Policy Research

Washington, DC

$100,000 for general support. The institute's research and publications focus on women and girls in relation to labor market and employment issues; family and work; poverty, welfare, and income security; health; and democratic participation. (1999-2001).

Institute for Women's Policy Research

Washington, DC

$250,000 to support the "Economics of Women's Reproductive Health" project (2001-2003).

Medical Students for Choice

Berkeley, CA

$325,650 for the Reproductive Health Summer Externship Program, which places medical students in clinical reproductive health settings in the U.S. and abroad (1997-2004).

Ms. Foundation for Women

New York, NY

$1,005,500 for several projects. The Collaborative Fund for Healthy Girls/Healthy Women is a coalition that provides grants, technical assistance, and leadership training to programs focusing on girls' health, self-esteem, and activism. The Reproductive Rights Coalition and Organizing Fund makes small grants to local reproductive rights coalitions and provides them with technical assistance, training, and networking opportunities (1998-2004).

NARAL Pro Choice America \(formerly the NARAL Foundation\)

Washington, DC

$25,000 to fund grassroots organizing in support of pro-choice, pro-family policies (1997-1998).

NARAL Pro Choice America \(formerly the NARAL Foundation\)

Washington, DC

$300,000 to support the Proactive Reproductive Health Policy Institute (2002-2004).

NARAL/NY

New York, NY

$60,000 to allow NARAL/NY to disseminate information to organizations in other states on successful research, organizing, and advocacy strategies developed by its Hospital Provider Project, which aims to increase the number of hospitals in New York that provide abortions; and its Managed Care Initiative, which addresses the effects of mandatory managed healthcare on Medicaid recipients' access to reproductive health services (1999-2000).

National Asian Women's Health Organization

San Francisco, CA

$195,000 for the Asian Women's Reproductive Health Empowerment Project (1997-2000).

National Black Women's Health Project

Washington, DC

$300,000 to support the Reproductive Health and Rights Program and the Grassroots, Empowerment and Advocacy Training (GREAT!) Program (1997-2002).

National Family Planning and Reproductive Health Association \(NFPRHA\)

Washington, DC

$140,000 for general support. NFPRHA advocates in Washington for access to family planning and reproductive healthcare, and provides balanced and scientific information in support of family planning (1997-2001).

National Family Planning and Reproductive Health Association \(NFPRHA\)

Washington, DC

$100,000 to support the Leadership Institute (2001-2003).

National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health

Washington, DC

$200,000 for general support. The institute's mission is to enhance the quality of life (including reproductive health) of Latinas through advocacy and education (1997-2000).

National Network of Abortion Funds

Amherst, MA

$275,000 for general support. The National Network of Abortion Funds organizes local funds to support abortion services where there is no public funding, and advocates for increased public funding (1997-2003).

NOW Legal Defense and Educational Fund Inc.

New York, NY

$50,000 to fund the five priority areas surrounding the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act (1997-1998).

National Partnership for Women and Families

Washington, DC

$650,000 for the Quality Healthcare Initiative and the Reproductive Healthcare Initiative. These projects address the range of coverage available to women and families from public and private insurance systems; educate employer/purchasers and health insurance providers about these findings; and advocate for consumer protection in the areas of health and reproductive health (1998-2001).

National Partnership for Women and Families

Washington, DC

$450,000 to support the Women's Health Initiative (2001-2003).

National Women's Law Center

Washington, DC

$1,000,000 for the Reproductive Rights and Health Program (1998-2004).

Native American Community Board

Lake Andes, SD

$100,000 to support the Indigenous Women's Reproductive Rights Project. The center provides education, services, and information on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, reproductive health, domestic violence, child development issues, and economic development (1999-2001).

New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation

New York, NY

$50,975 to fund the Teen Reproductive Health Initiative (1997-1998).

New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation

New York, NY

$100,000 to support the Reproductive Rights Project (2001-2003).

Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc.

New York, NY

$200,000 to support the Family Planning/Choice Defense Campaign, a coalition effort by the Center for Reproductive Law and Policy (CRLP), Feminist Majority Foundation (FMF), National Abortion Federation (NAF), National Abortion and Reproductive Rights Action League (NARAL) Foundation, National Family Planning and Reproductive Rights Association (NFPRHA), National Partnership for Women & Families (NPWF), National Women's Law Center, and Planned Parenthood Federation of America (PPFA) (2001-2002).

Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains

Denver, CO

$25,000 for public opinion research and grassroots organizing (1998-1999).

Planned Parenthood of Western Washington

Seattle, WA

$145,000 to support the Fair Access to Contraception (FAC) Project Contingency Fund. By suing on grounds of employment discrimination, under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act as amended by the Pregnancy Discrimination Act of 1978, the FAC Project seeks to remedy the fact that 50% of all private, large-group health insurance plans nationally do not cover prescription contraceptives (2001-2004).

The Policy Institute of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force

Washington, DC

$100,000 to strengthen the capacity of local activists and to conduct research, policy analysis, and strategic projects to advance understanding of, and equality for, gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered people (1998-2000).

ProChoice Resource Center

Port Chester, NY

$31,000 to support the Spotlight Campaign, a national media and grassroots organizing campaign focused on the issue of non-compliance provisions (2001-2002).

Research Action and Information for Bodily Integrity of Women \(RAINBO\)

New York, NY

$150,000 for the African Women's Health Project, which addresses reproductive health issues affecting African immigrant and refugee women in the U.S., including female genital mutilation (1998-2000).

Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice

Washington, DC

$550,000 for the Black Church Initiative, which encourages black religious leaders to address reproductive health issues in their churches and in public; the Clergy for Choice Campaign, a rapid response network of pro-choice activist clergy; the Organizing for Diversity Program, and the Youth and Internet Organizing Initiative (1998-2003).

Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice

Washington, DC

$25,000 to support an evaluation of RCRC's two faith-based sexuality education programs-"Keeping it Real" and "Breaking the Silence." (2001-2003).

Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States \(SIECUS\)

New York, NY

$497,000 to monitor and disseminate information about federally funded abstinence-only programs, and to conduct advocacy work to build national, state, and grassroots support for comprehensive sex education (1997-2004).

Women's Funding Network

San Francisco, CA

$10,000 for associate membership (2001-2002).

Women's Health and Family Planning Association of Texas \(formerly the Texas Family Planning Association\)

Austin, Texas

$100,000 to support the Texas Campaign for Women's Health (2001-2003).

Women's Law Project

Philadelphia, PA

$400,000 in start-up funds for the National Advocates for Pregnant Women, which responds to the prosecution of pregnant women for prenatal child abuse/endangerment (1998-2000).

---

Innovations in Service Delivery

Innovation in Service Delivery Grants Awarded, 1997-2004

Links to other organizations are provided where available.

EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTION:

Academy for Educational Development

New York, NY

$323,863 for the Emergency Contraception and Adolescents Project in Harlem and in selected school clinics elsewhere in New York City (1997-2001).

Advocates for Youth

Washington, DC

$495,000 to raise awareness about emergency contraception among young women nationally and in several key states (2000-2003).

American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, PA

$14,775 to support "Emergency Contraception for Rape Survivors: Policies to Ensure a Uniform Standard of Care" (2001).

American Medical Women's Association Foundation

New York, NY

$30,000 for additional printing and distribution of a special issue on emergency contraception (1998).

Association of Reproductive Health Professionals\*

Washington, DC

$170,000 to support provider education initiatives on emergency contraception and early abortion options (2000-2004).

Center for Reproductive Health Research and Policy, University of California San Francisco

San Francisco, CA

$183,166 to support clinical trials comparing the effects of three emergency contraception service delivery methods on access, unintended pregnancy rates, sexually transmitted disease rates, regular contraceptive usage, and frequency of unprotected intercourse (2002-2003).

Community Healthcare Network\*

New York, NY

$286,000 to expand provision of emergency contraception, and to plan and implement a program to offer mifepristone at CHN centers (2001-2003).

NARAL/NY

New York, NY

$339,000 to support the Campaign for Access for Emergency Contraception (2002-2004).

Pacific Institute for Women's Health

Los Angeles, CA

$100,000 for advocacy and education efforts in the areas of adolescent reproductive health services and emergency contraception (1997-1999).

Pacific Institute for Women's Health\*

Los Angeles, CA

$50,000 to support "Increasing Demand for and Access to Emergency Contraception and Medical Abortion in California" (2002-2003).

PATH

Seattle, WA

$109,000 for a pilot project to reach diverse communities with information on emergency contraception through public education and training of healthcare providers, social workers, and pharmacists (1999-2001).

Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc.

New York, NY

$1,000,000 for the Emergency Contraception Project a public education campaign to build awareness of emergency contraception among teens and young women; and an educational effort for providers at Planned Parenthood affiliates and other healthcare providers (1998-2001).

Planned Parenthood of Central and Northern Arizona\*

Phoenix, AZ

$114,000 to support the Emergency Contraception and Medical Abortion Public Awareness Campaign (2002-2003).

Planned Parenthood of Maryland

Baltimore, MD

$55,804 to support the Emergency Contraception Project, an education and outreach program to increase awareness and access to emergency contraception (2002-2003).

Population Council

New York, NY

$237,000 for clinical trials to test the efficacy of a reduced dosage emergency contraception regimen (1998-2000).

Population Services International

Washington, DC

$125,000 for a model emergency contraception pill public education project in Sacramento County, CA (1999-2001).

ProChoice Resource Center

Port Chester, NY

$275,000 to support EC Does It, a project to assist pharmacists and other grassroots groups in promoting awareness of, and access to, emergency contraception (1998-2002).

Public Health Institute

Berkeley, CA

$150,000 to support the Pharmacy Access Partnership (2002-2003).

Reproductive Health Technologies Project

Washington, DC

$200,000 to expand the project's Emergency Contraception Campaign, a series of print, radio, and television advertisements publicizing the project's Emergency Contraception Hotline, which gives callers from around the country basic information about emergency contraception, as well as the names and telephone numbers of five places locally where it is available (1998-2000).

Reproductive Health Technologies Project

Washington, DC

$50,000 to support "Demand Your EC" Day: An Activist Campaign (2001-2002).

Reproductive Health Technologies Project

Washington, DC

$100,000 to support two initiatives: a project in Oakland, CA to increase awareness of emergency contraception, and a national advocacy campaign to move emergency contraception to over-the-counter status (2000-2001).

Reproductive Health Technologies Project

Washington, DC

$150,000 for general support (2002-2004).

EARLY OPTIONS IN PREGNANCY TERMINATION:

Abortion Access Project, Inc. \(formerly the Boston Reproductive Rights Network\)

Cambridge, MA

$190,000 to support the New Abortion Provider Training Initiative (formerly called the New England Midlevel Training Consortium) (1997-2003).

Abortion Rights Mobilization

New York, NY

$110,000 to produce mifepristone for use in clinical trials and research (1998-1999).

American Medical Women's Association Foundation \(AMWA\)

New York, NY

$25,000 to support production, promotion and distribution of a special supplement to the Journal of the American Medical Women's Association (JAMWA) on medical abortion (1999-2000).

American Medical Women's Association Foundation

New York, NY

$150,000 to support the Medical Abortion Education Project of AMWA's Reproductive Health Initiative (2000-2002).

Association of Reproductive Health Professionals\*

Washington, DC

$135,000 to support provider education initiatives on emergency contraception and early abortion options (2000-2003).

Center for Reproductive Health Research and Policy, University of California San Francisco

San Francisco, CA

$560,000 to support collaborative efforts with university medical faculties and others to improve early abortion services (2000-2004).

Center for Reproductive Health Research and Policy, University of California San Francisco

San Francisco, CA

$74,865 to support a sociological study of new abortion providers (2002-2003).

Community Healthcare Network\*

New York, NY

$286,000 to expand provision of emergency contraception, and to plan and implement a program to offer mifepristone at CHN centers (2001-2003).

Early Options

Brooklyn, NY

$430,000 to support a training program in early abortion options for physicians practicing family medicine (2000-2004).

EngenderHealth \(formerly AVSC, International\)

New York, NY

$167,000 to support a comparative evaluation of currently available manual vacuum aspiration (MVA) instruments, in collaboration with PATH (2001-2002).

Ipas

Carrboro, NC

$75,043 to promote U.S. physicians' knowledge of manual vacuum aspiration, an early abortion technology (1998-2002).

Ipas

Carrboro, NC

$150,000 to support a project to promote and expand women's access to early abortion care in the U.S. (2002-2004).

Ipas

Carrboro, NC

$250,000 to support the K2 MVA Initiative (2001-2002).

Long Island College Hospital

Brooklyn, NY

$340,000 to support the education and outreach dimensions of a training program on early abortion options for physicians practicing family medicine (2000-2003).

Medical and Health Research Association of NYC

New York, NY

$588,314 to support a pilot program to introduce medical abortion at MIC-Women's Health Services in New York City (2000-2004).

NARAL/NY

New York, NY

$150,000 for the Rural Provider Project to increase access to reproductive healthcare services for women in underserved rural communities, mainstream these services into hospitals and other established medical practices, and increase access to new reproductive technologies (2000-2003).

National Abortion Federation

Washington, DC

$100,000 for the Access Initiative Project to alleviate the shortage of abortion providers, to increase abortion training opportunities, and to provide information and support to women faced with unplanned pregnancies (1998-1999).

National Abortion Federation

Washington, DC

$620,000 to fully integrate medical abortion in NAF's programs (2000-2004).

New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation

New York, NY

$50,000 to support a Medical Abortion Access Project, promoting the integration of early abortion into mainstream medical care (2000-2001).

Pacific Institute for Women's Health\*

Los Angeles, CA

$50,000 to support "Increasing Demand for and Access to Emergency Contraception and Medical Abortion in California" (2002-2003).

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health

New York, NY

$95,000 to implement the Medical Education and Training Initiative emphasizing education on medical abortion and manual vacuum aspiration (2000-2002).

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health

New York, NY

$100,000 to support the "Promoting the Integration of Abortion and Contraception into Mainstream Health Care" Program (2002-2004).

Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc.

New York, NY

$20,000 for a Strategic Positioning Meeting for the Introduction of Mifepristone to the United States (1999).

Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc.

New York, NY

$1,000,000 to support the Nationwide Mifepristone Affiliate-Readiness Project (2001-2003).

Planned Parenthood of Central and Northern Arizona\*

Phoenix, AZ

$114,000 to support the Emergency Contraception and Medical Abortion Public Awareness Campaign (2002-2003).

Planned Parenthood of New York City

New York, NY

$150,000 to support a proposed collaboration between PPNYC and the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation to streamline abortion services in New York City's public hospitals (2002-2004).

Planned Parenthood of New York City

New York, NY

$35,000 to support clinician training in medical abortion provision and counseling (2001-2002).

Population Council

New York, NY

$383,000 for clinical trials to test the safety and efficacy of a reduced dosage of mifepristone (2000-2001).

University of Puerto Rico

Cayey, PR

$45,000 to support the creation of an abortion curriculum for medical, nursing, and public health departments within the university (1998-2001).

University of Rochester School of Medicine \(Reproductive Health Program\) Rochester, NY

$123,536 to support a reproductive health summer fellowship program, and a reproductive health Grand Round series (2001-2003).

* Grant listed under both Emergency Contraception and Early Options in Pregnancy Termination.

---

International Work

International Work Grants Awarded, 1997-2004

Links to other organizations are included where available.

GLOBAL POLICY:

Action Canada for Population and Development

Ottawa, Canada

$25,000 for members of the Youth Coalition to travel and participate in activities of the U.N. General Assembly Special Session for Beijing + 5 (2000-2001).

Center for Development and Population Activities \(CEDPA\)

Washington, DC

$10,000 to enable two CEDPA partners and OSI colleagues from Guatemala and Russia to attend the U.N.'s five-year review of the ICPD Programme of Action (1999).

Center for Health and Gender Equity \(CHANGE\)

Takoma Park, MD

$100,000 in start-up funds. CHANGE conducts operations research to measure policy and program compliance with U.N. commitments at Cairo and Beijing to reproductive health and rights and women's empowerment (1998-2000).

Center for Policy Alternatives \(CPA\)

Washington, DC

$85,000 to support CPA's Beijing + 5 Project. CPA, a progressive policy institute, provides policy development on global women's issues (2000-2001).

Center for Women's Global Leadership \(CWGL\), Rutgers University Foundation

New Brunswick, NJ

$100,000 to support CWGL's Beijing +5 project. The center has led efforts to promote women's human rights worldwide by organizing women's leadership institutes and by convening women's human rights caucuses and tribunals (2000-2001).

Center for Women's Global Leadership, Rutgers University Foundation

New Brunswick, NJ

$90,000 to support a program, Deepening and Strengthening Women's Human Rights: The Intersection of Race, Class, and Gender, centered on the U.N. World Conference Against Racism (2001-2002).

Conference on Non-Governmental Organizations Foundation, Inc. \(CONGO\)

New York, NY

$65,000 to ensure full and representative participation of international non-governmental organizations in the planning and implementation of the Beijing +5 review (2000-2001).

Council on Foreign Relations

New York, NY

$66,000 for a roundtable series that convenes leading policymakers in international affairs and women's rights to consider how international women's human rights issues affect U.S. security and economic interests (1998-1999; 2001-2002).

Equality Now

New York, NY

$200,000 for the Beijing + 5 Campaign to hold governments accountable for the commitments they made to women's human rights at the 1995 Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing (1999-2001).

International Center for Research on Women

Washington, DC

$150,000 to send senior Senate and House staff to reproductive health facilities abroad in order to increase key policymakers' understanding of international family planning and women's rights (1998-2000).

International Rescue Committee

New York, NY

$300,000 for the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Project which developed a model sexual violence and reproductive healthcare program in refugee camps in Tanzania that has been replicated among other refugee populations, most recently in Kosovo (1998-2002).

Madre

New York, NY

$12,000 to support Madre's strategic planning process (2001-2002).

Public Media Center

San Francisco, CA

$200,000 for the Advanced Leadership Program for the State Family Planning Commission of China, which exposed China's family planning officials to best practices in reproductive health-oriented family planning programs and provided an opportunity for U.S. audiences to better understand Chinese goals and objectives (1998-2000).

United States Committee for the United Nations Population Fund

$30,000 to support an educational trip for congressional staff to UNFPA, USAID, and U.S. government-funded NGO sites in Morocco (2001-2002).

University of Miami School of Medicine

Miami, FL

$20,000 to support the "Towards Unity for Health" meeting (2001-2002).

Women's Human Rights Net

New York, NY

$75,000 in start-up funds for a trilingual website, developed by 23 organizations, that features news, information, web links, and discussion forums on women's human rights issues, advocacy, and strategies (2000-2001).

Women's World Organization for Rights, Literature & Development

New York, NY

$30,000 to provide training and develop projects in women's health and reproductive rights publishing in southern Africa, in partnership with the Boston Women's Health Book Collective (1998-1999).

EASTERN EUROPE:

Federation for Women and Family Planning

Warsaw, Poland

$101,500 to support the federation's expansion of its programs and initiation of ASTRA, a regional central and eastern European reproductive health coalition (2000-2001).

Institute for Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Perinatology, Russian Academy of Medical Sciences

Moscow, Russia

$14,735 to Reproductive Health Alliance Europe in conjunction with OSI's Public Health Program to research reasons for maternal mortality related to abortion in the Russian Federation (2000).

University of Toronto Faculty of Law

Toronto, Canada

$132,000 for graduate scholarships in reproductive health law for students from central and eastern Europe, the former Soviet Union, and southern Africa (1998-2002).

HAITI:

Association pour la Promotion de la Santé Intégrale de la Famille \(APROSIFA\)

Port-au-Prince, Haiti

$9,500 for the Haitian Creole translation of the Hesperian Foundation book Where Women Have No Doctor (1999-2000).

Madre

New York, NY

$30,000 to support Women's Health/Women's Right, a reproductive health initiative in Haiti (2000-2001).

Partners in Health \(PIH\)

Cambridge, MA

$243,276 to transform the Projè Santé Fanm (Women's Health Project), part of PIH's Haitian affiliate, Zanmi Lasante (ZL), into a model center for women's reproductive healthcare in Haiti (2000-2001).

Techniques d'Administration et Gestion (TAG)

Port-au-Prince, Haiti

$30,000 for the sociological/policy component of a research project, Situation Analysis on Abortion and its Complications in Haiti (1999-2000).

University of Miami School of Medicine

Miami, FL

$1,000,000 to develop a demonstration family and community healthcare project in central and northern Haiti as an innovative means of improving maternal and child health (1998-2001).

AFRICA:

Global Fund for Women Palo Alto, CA

$250,000 to fund grassroots non-governmental organizations that promote the social, economic, and political development of women in southern Africa (1998-2000).

OSISA Braamfontein

South Africa

$15,000 for the South Africa Women's Health Project to research funding opportunities in the area of women and HIV/AIDS (2000).

Research, Action & Information Network for Bodily Integrity of Women \(RAINBO\) London, England

$50,000 to fund RAINBO's new Amanitare initiative, the African Partnership for Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights of Women (2001-2002).

---

Public Education And Message Development

Public Education and Message Development Grants Awarded, 1997-2004

Links to organization websites are provided where available.

Alan Guttmacher Institute \(AGI\)

New York, NY

$200,500 to support strategic outreach efforts around AGI's report on the Title X federal family planning program's accomplishments during the last 30 years, Fulfilling the Promise: Public Policy and U.S. Family Planning Clinics (2000-2002).

Alan Guttmacher Institute \(AGI\)

New York, NY

$150,000 to support the publication of a policy guide on comprehensive sex education (2002-2004).

Alan Guttmacher Institute \(AGI\)

New York, NY

$200,000 to fund a two-year survey project, Abstinence and Sexuality Education in the Classroom: Gaining and Publicizing the Perspectives of Teachers Nationwide (1998-2000).

American Forum

Washington, DC

$90,000 to support efforts to increase coverage of reproductive health and rights issues by local news and media outlets in the South (2001-2003).

The American Prospect

Cambridge, MA

$55,000 to support a special double issue on the assault on women's reproductive rights (2001-2002).

Boston Women's Health Book Collective, Inc. \(BWHBC\)

Somerville, MA

$35,000 for outreach to Latina women using Nuestros Cuerpos, Nuestras Vidas, the revised and updated Spanish-language translation of Our Bodies, Ourselves (1997-1999).

Boston Women's Health Book Collective, Inc.

Somerville, MA

$50,000 to support BWHBC's grassroots level work to develop curricula and train service providers and peer educators to meet the needs of Latinas (2000-2001).

Catholics for a Free Choice \(CFFC\)

Washington, DC

$550,000 for general support. CFFC is fighting the accelerating trend of hospital mergers in the U.S. that is placing secular institutions under church jurisdiction and threatening reproductive health services. It is also conducting the See Change Campaign, which challenges the official governmental status of the Holy See at the U.N. (1998-2003).

Choice USA

Washington, DC

$525,000 for the Next Generation Campaign, a pro-choice public relations and media campaign targeting young people, especially on college campuses (1998-2004).

Columbia University School of Public Health

New York, NY

$332,222 for Finding Common Ground in the Era of Welfare Reform and Managed Care, a research project measuring the public health outcomes, especially for women and children, of the 1996 Personal and Social Responsibility Act. The project team will make recommendations for necessary revisions of welfare reform in the 2002 reauthorization (1998-2003).

Communications Consortium Media Center

Washington, DC

$475,000 for the Global Population Initiative, a multi-year initiative to increase media and public interest in world population, reproductive health, and women's empowerment (1998-2003).

Educational Development Center, Inc.

Newton, MA

$50,000 for broad outreach and dissemination activities for the Earth Education Partnership Program, which developed a high school curriculum on population and consumption (1998-1999).

Family Health Productions, Inc.

Gloucester, MA

$25,000 to support the development of two videos, The Power of Girls: Inside and Out and Real Strength: Boys Talk About Life, and accompanying discussion sheets (1999-2000).

Filmmakers Collaborative, Inc.

Waltham, MA

$50,000 to fund outreach and promotion activities for Generation XY: A Billion Teens in the New Millennium, a one-hour PBS special with a particular focus on the impact that adolescent girls will have on determining the size of future populations and the quality of life (1998-1999).

Hesperian Foundation

Berkeley, CA

$100,000 for general support. The Hesperian Foundation is a leading publisher of popular health manuals for the developing world (1998-2001).

Indirect Productions, Inc.

New York, NY

$15,000 to support the post-production and distribution costs of On Hostile Ground, a documentary on abortion providers (2000-2001).

Institute for Democracy Studies

New York, NY

$85,000 for the Reproductive Rights and Democracy Program, which monitors and publicizes the activities of right-wing groups (1998- 2001).

The NARAL Foundation

Washington, DC

$700,000 to support NARAL's five-year advertising and grassroots organizing campaign, CHOICE for AMERICA, which responds to the erosion of support for abortion rights created by extensive anti-abortion advertising (1998-2001).

National Abortion Federation

Washington, DC

$25,000 to support an eight-city, bilingual public service information campaign designed to humanize and destigmatize abortion patients and providers (1999-2000).

New York University

New York, NY

$70,000 to support the conference, Families in an Open Society (1999) .

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health

New York, NY

$15,000 to support an oral history and educational video project, The Voices of Choice: The Lives of Physicians Who Practiced Before Roe v. Wade (2001-2002).

Planned Parenthood of New York City

New York, NY

$30,000 for the Mapping the Future of Choice Conference on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of Roe v. Wade (1997).

Pro-Choice Public Education Project

Port Chester, NY

$500,000 for Pass the Torch, a pro-choice public education and media strategy targeting young people in the New York and San Francisco metropolitan regions. The ads have also been used by grassroots groups in 40 states and Washington, DC (1998-2001).

Refuse and Resist

New York, NY

$10,000 to fund a National Day of Appreciation for Abortion Providers (1999).

Rocky Mountain Peace and Justice Center

Boulder, CO

$20,000 to support a show of photographs, "Beggars and Choosers: Motherhood Is Not a Class Privilege in America" (2001-2002).

Rutgers University Foundation

New Brunswick, NJ

$120,000 to fund the Teen-to-Teen Sexuality Education Project, including publication and distribution of the magazine, SEX, Etc.; expansion of the SEX, Etc. website; and distribution of Student Action Kits (2000-2003).

---