

Palestinian Rule of Law (PROL) Awards 2019–2020

OPEN SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS & THE ARAB REGIONAL OFFICE

Deadline for Applications: February 15, 2019

Program Announcement

The Open Society Foundations' Palestinian Rule of Law (PROL) Program is accepting applications for LL.M. Scholarships. Approximately 5 awards will be available for the 2019-2020 academic year.

PROL LL.M. scholarships provide support for the completion of an LL.M. (Master of Laws) degree. Scholarships will be tenable at select law schools in the United States.

Summer Pre-Academic Program

All LL.M. fellows will attend a pre-academic summer course administered by the Open Society Foundations in July 2019. Attendance costs will be covered by grantees' scholarships.

Scholarship Benefits

University tuition, monthly living stipend (sufficient for a single grantee), travel costs, educational materials, professional development expenses, health insurance, and Fellows' Conference expenses.

Requirements

Applicants should have outstanding relevant academic qualifications (a LL.B. / B.A. in law or other law degree is required), professional aptitude, and leadership potential.

Candidates must be normally resident in the West Bank (including East Jerusalem) or Gaza and proficient in spoken and written English and Arabic. Successful applicants must commit to returning to the West Bank or Gaza Strip upon completion of the scholarship.

The PROL program does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation, or disability. Award decisions are open and merit-based.

How to Apply

Program guidelines, application instructions, and a full list of eligibility requirements are available here.