

OPEN SOCIETY INSTITUTE-BALTIMORE

FINAL CAMPAIGN REPORT 2006-2010

THANK YOU, BALTIMORE!

Your gifts, totaling $15.7 million, reveal our community's appetite for OSI-Baltimore's trademark: Audacious Thinking for Lasting Change.

These gifts have supported our focused, hard-nosed approach to finding solutions to our city and state's most stubborn problems. OSI-Baltimore's donors are all about results--results that are increasing the odds that every adult and child, regardless of their race or economic status, will have access to opportunity in this city.

We have used these gifts to further our goal of building an inclusive, fair and opportunity-rich society by identifying effective solutions to local problems and building public-private partnerships to put those solutions into practice. As our list of donors grows each year and as more individuals and organizations become involved in our work, we feel encouraged that we are on the right track.

More than 350 donors have contributed funds to OSI-Baltimore over the last five years--allowing us to tackle drug addiction, reduce over-incarceration, and remove obstacles to success for youth both in and out of school. And we have supported 116 phenomenal Community Fellows whose efforts continue to revitalize neighborhoods and foster community change.

OSI-Baltimore brings both money and decision-makers to the table, so we get things done. Our efforts have produced some remarkable results in a relatively short period of time. For example:

- Student suspensions and expulsions are down significantly; more city students attend school regularly, and more students are staying in school and graduating;
- Juvenile arrests, juvenile homicides, and juvenile shootings have declined sharply, partly due to the fact that more students are in school and after-school programs; and
- Waiting lists for addiction treatment are virtually a thing of the past in Baltimore City as more residents are enrolled in newly available, publicly funded treatment.

With progress like this, our audacious work must continue. After rigorous research, consultation and debate, we have developed goals and strategies to guide our work during 2011-2013. And, we have begun our quest to raise another $6.75 million to support the next chapter in OSI-Baltimore's history.

We hope that all OSI-Baltimore investors will continue to back our continuing efforts and also help spread the OSI-Baltimore message to any and all who would want to add their names to this growing list of donors.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM C. CLARKE, III, Chair
DIANA MORRIS, Director
